

My Date With A Vampire – Episode 2

If I Ever Encounter a Vampire, I'll Let You Interview Him

Tin Yau: Are you wondering why I said I saw Chor Chun?

Zhen Zhen: And it's at the hotel. Why can't I see her?

Tin Yau: Do you want to see her?

Zhen Zhen: If Chor Chun's really pitiful, I'd like to meet her. If we can communicate, we should do whatever we can to help her. Did you really see Chor Chun?

Tin Yau: If you believe there are ghosts, then there are. If not, there isn't. Moreover, I'm just interested in how she died.

Zhen Zhen: I believe that is not your sole motive; otherwise, you would not have put in so much effort. If it is not for money, it is interest.

Tin Yau: You can say that, but your friend is different. She is more money-minded.

Zhen Zhen: You're referring to Siu Ling? She's actually a nice girl. She's more softhearted than I am. You'll find out when you get to know her.

Tin Yau: Perhaps.

Zhen Zhen: Oh yes, you aren't positive that Chor Chun's murdered by a vampire, are you?

Tin Yau: Do you believe that vampires exist?

Zhen Zhen: There are simply too many things in this world that I don't know. However, Chor Chun's father was so serious about it, such that I'm in a dilemma. If they really exist, I think they are rather pitiful too.

Tin Yau: Why do you say that?

Zhen Zhen: If you were a vampire, what would you do? You'll think that you're a freak. You can't enjoy delicious food and only live on blood. When you are happy, there is no one to share your joy. When you are upset, there is also no one to share your woe. Don't you think they are pitiful and lonely?

Tin Yau: I don't know. If I ever encounter a vampire, I'll let you interview him. How about that?

Siu Ling appears from behind...

Siu Ling: Had a nice chat?

Zhen Zhen: Siu Ling, what took you so long?

Siu Ling: Let you two have more time to chat.

Tin Yau: Great! Since you are back, my job is accomplished and I'll return your friend to you.

Zhen Zhen: You have kept me company all this while. Let me give you a treat.

Tin Yau: There is no need.

Siu Ling: Let me give the treat.

Zhen Zhen: Didn't you say you are broke?

Siu Ling: That was yesterday. Today is different. Anyway, we can go for a sumptuous meal and after that we'll go for a skiing session and shopping spree. All expenses will be on me.

Zhen Zhen: Really?

Siu Ling: (to Tin Yau) what about you? Zhen Zhen's going; join us.

Tin Yau: You aren't trying to bring us together, are you?

Siu Ling: It seems that this is within your ability. Whatever it is, just have fun with us today and after that I'll give you time to question Chor Chun. OK?

Tin Yau: OK.

Zhen Zhen: Can we go now?

Siu Ling: Sure.

Zhen Zhen: Great!
