

My Date With A Vampire 2- Episode 7
It's Not Praying

---

(Siu Ling wakes up.)

Siu Ling: It's not praying.

Tin Yau: What did you say?

Siu Ling: I said, the murderer didn't mean for his victims to pray but to make them think about their wrongs.

Tin Yau: What you meant was that the murderer felt that the victims did him wrong?

Siu Ling: Or perhaps he felt that since he's a vampire, he's superior?

Tin Yau: Does a vampire think he's God? In that case, he hasn't got the taste of being a vampire.

Siu Ling: Well, have you?

Tin Yau: Since we haven't come up with anything, why start working from the beginning?

Siu Ling: Ok, we'll check with her family and friends to see if we can get more clues. Your coat stinks. Better let Zhen Zhen wash it for you since she enjoys doing the laundry.
