

My Date With A Vampire 2 – Episode 7
Not Done by A Vampire

Siu Ling: What do you think?

Tin Yau: It's not done by a vampire.

Siu Ling: Why?

Tin Yau: What do you think?

Siu Ling: I thought it couldn't be too. If a vampire did it, the wound would have traces of the vampire breath and hence turn green.

Tin Yau: Take a life, as it is, why disguise as a vampire?

Siu Ling: Well, you cops like to call it psychological imbalance.

Tin Yau: Sometimes humans are crazier than vampires.

Siu Ling: They each have their characteristics.

Tin Yau: Don't worry, I'll find the murderer.

Siu Ling: Do you want a helper?

Tin Yau: You want to give me a hand?

Siu Ling: If the murderer is such a nutty one such that he thinks he's a vampire, he won't be afraid of the police but me. It's a psychological battle.

Tin Yau: I can't afford to pay you.

Siu Ling: I'll make this an exception. I won't charge you. I can't take it lying down seeing my friend lose her life so innocently and that her soul is almost dissipated. How's it?

Tin Yau: Can you use a computer?
