

My Date With A Vampire II - Episode 5-6

Siuling's Bracelet

---

After seeing Zhen Zhen home, Tin Yau went back to his apartment. Just as he was going to open his door, a frightened Siuling dashed out of her house, grabbed Tin Yau and held him tightly. Turns out that there was a cockroach in her house. She saw Tin Yau wearing the safety string given by her.

Siuling: Why suddenly take it out to wear?

Tin Yau: Did you give this to me?

Siuling: I gave you that when you joined the police force, don't you remember?

Tin Yau: Then why can't I wear it?

Siuling: Nothing, you had not worn it for quite some time so I was curious. Good night.

Tin Yau: Goodnight

Tin Yau returned to his apartment and told Fu Sheng about what happen.

Tin Yau: This bracelet was a gift from Siu Ling to Tin Yau (grandson). When Siu Ling saw me wearing it today, her reaction was strange. I believe something must have gone on between the two of them.

Fuk Sung: It can't be, can it? There's something between the two of you?

Tin Yau: It's not between Siu Ling and me. It's between my grandson, Tin Yau and Siu Ling.

Fuk Sung: Are you your grandson and your grandson is you. (Sighs) There's gonna be big trouble. A slayer loves a vampire. It's worse than Romeo and Juliet. And there's a mortal Zhen Zhen! Don't you think it's the worst tragedy of the millennium?

Tin Yau: Where have you sidetracked to? I was only deducing.

Fuk Sung: That's better.

